

INTD 6095

Responsible Research in Appropriate Technology

Prof. William J. Frey, School of Business Administration

2015-16 Sem 2: Tuesday/Thursday 1:30PM-2:45PM, ADEM 236

Are you a graduate student who seeking credentials in research ethics? Are you also interested in applying research ethics frameworks in alternative contexts? Do you want to apply your research directly to enhance human wellbeing and address important community and societal issues? Then this course is for you! Topics:

- Moral imagination and moral expertise
- Realizing of human potentialities and capabilities
- Developing profitable partnerships to alleviate poverty
- Social-technical systems and social context of technology
- Cases related to ongoing work of the GREAT IDEA project in Haiti

For further information contact williamjoseph.frey@upr.edu or visit greatidea.uprm.edu/courses.html

This course satisfies UPRM research ethics training requirements for federally sponsored researchers!

Sponsored by the projects

Graduate Research and Education for Appropriate Technology: Inspiring Direct Engagement and Agency
Cultivating Responsible Wellbeing in STEM: Social Engagement through Personal Ethics